ALTHINE F. LEAR, Treasurer.

Report of Library Committee

FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEB. 15, 1911.

We are glad to report continued interest in the welfare of the Library, and increasing patronage. The librarian informs us that an average of 37 volumes per week has been loaned for the past six months. The library contains 1752 volumes, classified as follows: General Fiction, 1003; Juvenile Books, 260; History and Biography, 225; Philosophical and Religious, 46; Encyclopedias and other books of reference, 46; Medical works, 28; Legislative Reports, etc., 34; Duplicate volumes, 110. The present demand is greatest in the line of books for children and young people.

"Everybody's Magazine" and "The Munsey" are still continued by kind friends.

Recent donors of books to the Library include Rev. J. Hooper of Goshen, Mrs. A. P. Carll of Providence, A. B. Willey of Claremont, Donald Alexander of Boston, Thomas

Chadwick and Myo Bowman. Mr. Willey's gift consists of a complete file of Scribner's Magazine from the beginning of its publication to the present time. Mrs. Geo. H. Woodbury of Newport and Nathan T. Brown have each given a fine set of magazines which will be much enjoyed.

Other gifts to the Library during the past year are a portrait of Mrs. Olive G. Pettis, by Edwin M. Pettis; a large framed engraving by Mrs. A. P. Carll, and a Librarian's desk by Anthine F. Lear.

The committee respectfully suggest that the duplicate books be placed on sale, and the proceeds used for the good of the Library.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. THISELL,
ANTHINE F. LEAR,
FRED P. JONES,
GEO. F. CRANE,
W. R. NELSON,
Library Committee.
